Ballou's Magazine.

Ballou's Magazine for June, is one of the best publications in this country of livelass. It is full of just such reading matter as the public delight to get hold of, and we do not wonder; here is a magazine that always has a sea story, eightfor ten love stories, an historical article, a lot of curious matters, nice illustrations, comic pictures and pootry of the Board heretofore passed, with regard to the nuisance caused by the Pa. On and after the 2d day of June, antil the the best description. It is just such a magazine as delights an intelligent household, for there is so much in it of household, for there is so much in it of a siftring insture. It is cheap too, being to express their gratitude to all those only $1.50 per year, or 15 cents single copies, and is for sale at all the periodical depote in the country. The great fire does not seem to have injured the properly of Ballou's Magazine in the least, for it looks better and brighter than ever.
